

Milwaukee Daily Sentinel.

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 28, 1852.
Bulus King, Wm. H. Watson & John. S. Fillmore PROPRIETORS.

UNDER THE SAME AND NEW OF RUFUS KING & CO.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

For President,
WINFIELD SCOTT
OF NEW JERSEY.

For Vice President,
WILLIAM A. GRAHAM,
OF NORTH CAROLINA.

FROM OUR N. Y. CORRESPONDENT.

New York, Monday, June 21, 1852.

The labors of the Whig Convention are more protracted even than those of their opponents, and are yet while I write, unfinished.

—that they will not result in so ridiculous a list, as that of the Free-Soil Convention. One of the names designated by the people will certainly be accepted and reported by the Convention; and it is, I hope, to have received the letter which the

Vice President, from Wisconsin, and the Secretary of War, John G. Chapman, of Maryland. The vice in committee

was, however, stated, it was unanimous.

Mr. J. E. ARNOLD, was the Vice President from

Wisconsin, and SCHUYLER COFFEE, Esq., and

John G. Chapman, as Secretary; and to the Whig nomination, the two Secretaries

from our section of the Union.

Mr. CHAPMAN having been defeated, to his seat, by Mr. J. CLAYTON, and Mr.

SAMUEL VINTON, of Ohio, addressed the Convention in an earnest and somewhat elaborate speech, which was warmly received. At its close,

the Vice Presidents and Secretaries took their places

on the officers' platform, and the Convention being then permanently organized, its proceedings

were opened with prayer. And then, the committee on credentials being yet unprepared to report, the Convention adjourned till noon on Thursday. So ended the first day's session.

At the hour appointed, on Thursday, the Convention re-assembled, and was opened with prayer. It was known, however, that the Committee on Credentials still had in their hands the power of making a resolution.

One of the names designated by the people will

certainly be accepted and reported by the Convention; and it is, I hope,

to have received the letter which the

Vice President, from Wisconsin, and the

Secretary of War, John G. Chapman, of Maryland. The vice in committee

was, however, stated, it was unanimous.

Mr. J. E. ARNOLD, was the Vice President from

Wisconsin, and SCHUYLER COFFEE, Esq., and

John G. Chapman, as Secretary; and to

the Whig nomination, the two Secretaries

from our section of the Union.

Mr. CHAPMAN having been defeated, to his

seat, by Mr. J. CLAYTON, and Mr.

SAMUEL VINTON, of Ohio, addressed the Convention in an earnest and somewhat elaborate speech, which was warmly received. At its close,

the Vice Presidents and Secretaries took their places

on the officers' platform, and the Convention be-

ing then permanently organized, its proceedings

were opened with prayer. And then, the committee on credentials being yet unprepared to report, the Convention adjourned till noon on

Thursday. So ended the first day's session.

At the hour appointed, on Thursday, the Convention re-assembled, and was opened with pray-

er. It was known, however, that the Committee

on Credentials still had in their hands the

power of making a resolution.

One of the names designated by the people will

certainly be accepted and reported by the Convention; and it is, I hope,

to have received the letter which the

Vice President, from Wisconsin, and the

Secretary of War, John G. Chapman, of Maryland. The vice in committee

was, however, stated, it was unanimous.

Mr. J. E. ARNOLD, was the Vice President from

Wisconsin, and SCHUYLER COFFEE, Esq., and

John G. Chapman, as Secretary; and to

the Whig nomination, the two Secretaries

from our section of the Union.

Mr. CHAPMAN having been defeated, to his

seat, by Mr. J. CLAYTON, and Mr.

SAMUEL VINTON, of Ohio, addressed the Convention in an earnest and somewhat elaborate speech, which was warmly received. At its close,

the Vice Presidents and Secretaries took their places

on the officers' platform, and the Convention be-

ing then permanently organized, its proceedings

were opened with prayer. And then, the committee on credentials being yet unprepared to report, the Convention adjourned till noon on

Thursday. So ended the first day's session.

At the hour appointed, on Thursday, the Convention re-assembled, and was opened with pray-

er. It was known, however, that the Committee

on Credentials still had in their hands the

power of making a resolution.

One of the names designated by the people will

certainly be accepted and reported by the Convention; and it is, I hope,

to have received the letter which the

Vice President, from Wisconsin, and the

Secretary of War, John G. Chapman, of Maryland. The vice in committee

was, however, stated, it was unanimous.

Mr. J. E. ARNOLD, was the Vice President from

Wisconsin, and SCHUYLER COFFEE, Esq., and

John G. Chapman, as Secretary; and to

the Whig nomination, the two Secretaries

from our section of the Union.

Mr. CHAPMAN having been defeated, to his

seat, by Mr. J. CLAYTON, and Mr.

SAMUEL VINTON, of Ohio, addressed the Convention in an earnest and somewhat elaborate speech, which was warmly received. At its close,

the Vice Presidents and Secretaries took their places

on the officers' platform, and the Convention be-

ing then permanently organized, its proceedings

were opened with prayer. And then, the committee on credentials being yet unprepared to report, the Convention adjourned till noon on

Thursday. So ended the first day's session.

At the hour appointed, on Thursday, the Convention re-assembled, and was opened with pray-

er. It was known, however, that the Committee

on Credentials still had in their hands the

power of making a resolution.

One of the names designated by the people will

certainly be accepted and reported by the Convention; and it is, I hope,

to have received the letter which the

Vice President, from Wisconsin, and the

Secretary of War, John G. Chapman, of Maryland. The vice in committee

was, however, stated, it was unanimous.

Mr. J. E. ARNOLD, was the Vice President from

Wisconsin, and SCHUYLER COFFEE, Esq., and

John G. Chapman, as Secretary; and to

the Whig nomination, the two Secretaries

from our section of the Union.

Mr. CHAPMAN having been defeated, to his

seat, by Mr. J. CLAYTON, and Mr.

SAMUEL VINTON, of Ohio, addressed the Convention in an earnest and somewhat elaborate speech, which was warmly received. At its close,

the Vice Presidents and Secretaries took their places

on the officers' platform, and the Convention be-

ing then permanently organized, its proceedings

were opened with prayer. And then, the committee on credentials being yet unprepared to report, the Convention adjourned till noon on

Thursday. So ended the first day's session.

At the hour appointed, on Thursday, the Convention re-assembled, and was opened with pray-

er. It was known, however, that the Committee

on Credentials still had in their hands the

power of making a resolution.

One of the names designated by the people will

certainly be accepted and reported by the Convention; and it is, I hope,

to have received the letter which the

Vice President, from Wisconsin, and the

Secretary of War, John G. Chapman, of Maryland. The vice in committee

was, however, stated, it was unanimous.

Mr. J. E. ARNOLD, was the Vice President from

Wisconsin, and SCHUYLER COFFEE, Esq., and

John G. Chapman, as Secretary; and to

the Whig nomination, the two Secretaries

from our section of the Union.

Mr. CHAPMAN having been defeated, to his

seat, by Mr. J. CLAYTON, and Mr.

SAMUEL VINTON, of Ohio, addressed the Convention in an earnest and somewhat elaborate speech, which was warmly received. At its close,

the Vice Presidents and Secretaries took their places

on the officers' platform, and the Convention be-

ing then permanently organized, its proceedings

were opened with prayer. And then, the committee on credentials being yet unprepared to report, the Convention adjourned till noon on

Thursday. So ended the first day's session.

At the hour appointed, on Thursday, the Convention re-assembled, and was opened with pray-

er. It was known, however, that the Committee

on Credentials still had in their hands the

power of making a resolution.

One of the names designated by the people will

certainly be accepted and reported by the Convention; and it is, I hope,

to have received the letter which the

Vice President, from Wisconsin, and the

Secretary of War, John G. Chapman, of Maryland. The vice in committee

was, however, stated, it was unanimous.

Mr. J. E. ARNOLD, was the Vice President from

Wisconsin, and SCHUYLER COFFEE, Esq., and

John G. Chapman, as Secretary; and to

the Whig nomination, the two Secretaries

from our section of the Union.

DRY GOODS, &c.
LOW RENTS!
LOW PRICES!
WEST SIDE OF RIVER

BOYD & LEDYARD
No. 9, Spring Street,
Milwaukee, Wisconsin,

now in receipt of their full supply of DRY GOODS,

GROCERIES,
SUITABLE FOR THE Spring & Summer Trade,

LOWER PRICES

FOR THE FANCY DRESS GOODS,

Is larger than ever before offered, and at the lowest prices.

INDIA SILKS,

The most beautiful silk ever offered for Fanciest Dress.

TOYS, GAMES, &c., of every color and price.

MOULIN DE VILLE,
225 Spring Street, Milwaukee.

DRY GOODS, STRAW BONNETS, RIBBONS, &c., and all other articles of FANCY DRESS GOODS,

are now in stock.

Most beautiful silk ever offered for Fanciest Dress.

Lower prices.

Lower prices.